The Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs is Committed to Maintaining Good Governance

Jakarta, March 29th, 2023

The commitment of the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs in providing the best for Indonesia continues to be manifested in various efforts and achievements. One of the efforts was also realized in the commitment to carry out Bureaucratic Reform within the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs.

For the hard work of all employees in carrying out the Bureaucratic Reform, the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs held an activity "Submitting Appreciation in Escorting the 2021-2022 Bureaucratic Reform Agenda" at Graha Sawala, Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs, Wednesday (29/03).

"In implementing the Bureaucratic Reform agenda yesterday, we were able to achieve many aspects together, so today you are given appreciation for the various efforts and hard work in achieving our various Bureaucratic Reform targets," said Secretary of the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs Susi Wijono Moegiarso.

Launching from the official website of the Ministry of Administrative Reform and Bureaucratic Reform, Bureaucratic Reform is aimed at creating a professional government bureaucracy with characteristics, integration, high performance, free and clean of Corruption, Collusion, and Nepotism, able to serve the public, neutral, prosperous, dedicated, and upholds the values principles and code of ethics of the state apparatus.

Furthermore, the awarding activity also gave appreciation to the Agents of Change of the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs in 2022 who had innovated according to their respective action plans. The Agents of Change are expected to be able to inspire other employees to continue to make good changes and be able to respond to the challenges of future changes.

"I think some of the existing achievements I beg to continue to improve," said Sesmenko Susiwijono.

In the activity which was also attended by the ranks of the Primary High Officials, Sesmenko Susiwijono said that the Coordinating Minister for Economic Affairs Airlangga Hartarto emphasized that all levels of the Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs must continue to be committed to maintaining the good governance.

"Hopefully in the future, we will always be even better and everything will be full of blessings for all of us," concluded Sesmenko Susiwijono. (ltg/dlt/map/fsr)
